New members are assigned a chapter affiliation based on the location of their preferred mailing address. Upon application acceptance, members may request a chapter transfer by calling (800) 252-4362, extension 2, or by sending an e-mail to memberservices@hfma.org. To learn more about the chapters in your area, visit www.hfma.org/chapters.

Annual regular membership includes a $30 allocation to Healthcare Financial Management, the official magazine, and is not deductible from the dues. Annual dues cover membership in National HFMA and in one local chapter. Memberships are personal only and do not apply to institutions. Memberships, even those paid by employers, are not transferrable. HFMA reserves the right to verify an applicant's full-time academic position.

ABOUT HFMA

The Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) is the nation's most respected resource for healthcare financial management professionals and leaders. HFMA supports more than 35,000 members representing most hospitals and health systems. An HFMA membership delivers you the practical tools and resources you need to succeed!

Am I eligible to join HFMA as a student member?

You are eligible for student membership, provided that you are a full-time college student during the academic year at an educational institution that maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and that has an organized body of students at the location of its educational activities, or that you are a full-time intern, resident or co-op student affiliated with an accredited educational program.

Can membership in HFMA help me find a job after graduation?

Yes. Research studies all agree that a large percentage of jobs are found through personal contacts or networking. Becoming a student member of HFMA provides you with access to more than 35,000 healthcare financial professionals. HFMA offers students an opportunity to meet and build relationships with healthcare finance professionals who represent potential employers.
