healthcare financial management association

You're always being asked to do more.
That's why the new HFMA Forums have been enhanced to provide you with even more access to valuable targeted information in the specific practice areas most important to you.

Have your RAC audit questions answered by an expert... learn how hospitals are aligning financial incentives with physicians... get access to a point-of-service calculator that tells you exactly what hospitals can collect up front...

With more information, more experts and more access to other members, you will benefit more than ever from the new HFMA Forums.

HFMA FORUMS ARE YOUR SINGLE SOURCE FOR:

- Developing a powerful professional network
- Utilizing proven tools and tips
- Accessing subject matter experts
- Keeping on top of the industry's hottest topics
- Sharing and testing practices and tools as they are developing
- Fulfilling education goals and requirements
- Obtaining useful interviews with industry leaders
- Remaining at the forefront of the healthcare finance industry
