Thursday, September 14th

7:30 - 8:00 am	Continental Breakfast and Registration
8:00 - 8:15 am	President's Welcome - Pam Ott, HFMA-WI President
8:15 - 9:30 am Keynote Speaker	 “How to Become A Born Leader” Billy Riggs, Master of Enchantment, Entertainment & Empowerment. Climb the “Leadership Pyramid” through 6 distinct stages! Bosses are a dime a dozen; leaders are priceless. Employees obey bosses only because they fear they will be rendered more miserable if they disobey than if they obey. Morale suffers, key people depart and productivity sags. But a genuine leader inspires team members to want to do their work. Employees follow true leaders out of respect and admiration. They work out of a sense of shared ownership of goals and passion for the fulfillment of a noble mission. Learn the keys to climbing the “Leadership Pyramid” through six distinct stages (while laughing through an entertaining and fun program) and begin the rewarding journey from mere boss to leader.
9:30 - 9:45 am	Break
9:45 - 10:45 am Breakout Sessions	Breakout Session 101: “Legal and Regulatory Update - 2017” Todd Nova & Joe Krause, Hall Render 2017 has seen a flurry of proposed and final rules affecting provider operations. This presentation will focus on details and strategic implications of the most important reimbursement-related issues including: 1) provider-based status; 2) the 340B Program; 3) rural to urban reclassification; and 4) RHC reimbursement. Breakout Session 102: “State/Federal Legislative Update & How YOU Can Impact The Process” Jenny Boese, WI Hospital Association Hear about key health care issues pending at the state and the federal levels and understand why public policy engagement matters. You will learn fundamental ways you can have an impact on public policy.
10:45 - 11:00 am	Break

11:00 - Noon Breakout Sessions Continued	Breakout Session 201: “Health Care Forensics Data Mining” Lanny Morrow, Senior Data Scientist BKD, LLP Fraud can wreak havoc on organization financial performance and undermine business objectives. No business is immune from the risks associated with fraud, and health care organizations have some unique and rampant risks for fraud and embezzlement. With stories from the trenches and often overlooked prevention tips, you will be simultaneously educated and entertained during this fast-paced program designed for those with or without an accounting background. Detection of fraud can be a difficult issue, but forensic data mining is a cutting-edge method of detection combining behavioral analytics, mathematical models, analytical tools, and data visualization to identify unusual patterns and “red flags”, particularly in accounts payable, vendor and payroll data – but also in textual data such as email, social media, internet activity, hotline data, and performance reviews. Breakout Session 202: “I Am More Than My Balance” Patrick Maurer, President Apex Revenue Technologies Just as everyone has a very personal healthcare experience, each has different financial needs and preferences that affect how, when and if they pay their bill. In this session we’ll cover how patient preferences diverge based on fundamental differences, how to leverage that insight to tailor financial communications throughout the journey, using empathy to build loyalty and side-by-side comparisons of providers that illustrate the financial impact of personalization.
Noon - 1:30 pm	Lunch
1:30 - 2:30 pm Breakout Sessions	Breakout Session 301: “Wellness Works” Nancy Alstad, Director-Human Resources Fort HealthCare This session will address the design and implementation strategy of wellness programs along with incentives for participation and continuing engagement tactics. Learn the recognition of cost savings and impact to benefit programs. Breakout Session 302: “Patient Access New Service Model: Cross-training to Create a One Stop Shop for Patients” Sherry Evenson, MBA, FHFMA, System Director Patient Access, Aspirus, Inc. Learn how utilizing the Lean Six Sigma process can be effective in rolling out point of service collection. We’ll also address how bringing financial counseling under Patient Access unifies collection efforts and how reducing FTEs results in an enhanced patient experience.
2:45 - 3:45 pm Breakout Sessions 2:30 - 4:30 pm Epic Tour	Breakout Session 401 - “Accounting & Audit Standards Update” Michael Peer, CPA, CFE, CHC CliftonLarsonAllen LLP Learn about the accounting standards that are effective in upcoming years and understand the potential impact of exposure drafts and other projects in accounting and auditing. You will learn how to develop methods for assessing the impact of new and emerging standards for a health care organization. Breakout Session 402 - Epic Tour Board a Badger Coach for a ride to the Epic Campus in Verona for a tour of this extremely unique environment. Epic’s campus fosters creativity, teamwork, and innovation. While designing this campus, the main goal was to help employees be as productive as possible, which in turn helps Epic serve their customers better. Epic was also determined to be cost conscious and environmentally sensitive. Your tour guide will show you the sights, from the themed conference rooms to the slide! (Session is limited to the first 40 registrants)
