 - New Senate President, Jeb Bradley
 - Senate Democratic Leader, Donna Soucy
 - House: GOP retains control by a razor thin majority (201-198)

- Many familiar battle lines, but opportunities for bipartisanship remain

New Hampshire Update

 - Governor kicks off the process in February, first goes to House and then to the Senate

 - Bipartisanship put to the test last week when House leadership was forced to compromise with House Democrats in order to get a budget passed
 - Troubling behavioral health provisions inserted by the Governor were removed from the budget
 - On to the Senate...

New Hampshire Update

 - SB 131, relative to provider contract standards
 - SB 72, relative to provider credentialing procedures
 - SB 82, relative to prompt payments for managed care
- Licensing
 - Governor included major licensing reforms in his budget
 - Viewed by many in the House as too much, too soon, largely removed from the budget
