

Certified Hospital Cost Report Specialist

ADVANTAGES OF BECOMING A CHCRS

The CHCRS certification designation demonstrates an understanding of the following:

- Purpose of the cost reporting and its role in determining payments.
- Examine all the primary cost report worksheets.
- Understand the Medicare cost report settlement and the various settlement components.
- Explore the key factors in determining which Medicare Special Designations apply to your organization
- Identify various clinic types as well as strategies and advantages/disadvantages to your organization.

Note: Maintenance required to retain the certification.

Demonstrate your hospital cost report expertise.

Enroll now!
hfma.org/CHCRS

1. Complete the HFMA Hospital Cost Report Program eLearning, or;
2. Complete FORVIS led virtual cost report training:
forvis.com/events

CHCRS

The Hospital Cost Report certification program is a collaboration between HFMA and FORVIS, LLP. The program is an in-depth presentation of key components of hospital cost reporting.

CHCRS TARGET AUDIENCE:

The program is recommended for and includes CFOs, controllers, reimbursement managers, directors and staff, accounting and finance staff, cost and budget staff, and consultants.